

Terms and Conditions for Media Accredited Personnel

General

- Accreditation is personalised, and therefore, is non-transferable.
- Please observe pre-booked workstations and telephone lines in the Press Room.
- Media accreditation passes must be displayed at all times.

Betting Ring Areas

TV/film crews and photographers may only film or photograph general atmosphere shots of the betting ring. No filming of individuals transacting wagers is allowed.

Photographers

- Photographers must be considerate of all racegoers when gaining the best photographic position.
- Photographers must not obstruct the view of mobile and fixed TV cameras.

Mounting Yard

- The Mounting Yards at both Randwick and Warwick Farm are areas designed specifically for trainers, horses, jockeys, connections and AJC officials, prior to and after races. Media are privileged to have access to this area and should abide by the rules accordingly. For the safety and security of all concerned, numbers in the Mounting Yard are strictly limited.
- Local TV networks (camera crews and journalists) will not be permitted to enter the Mounting Yard except when prior approval is granted.
- Approved photographers must wear an identification vest at all times in the Mounting Yard on Carnival days and can be collected from the Raceday Office. They must be returned at the end of the day.
- All media must remain behind the designated barriers, pre and post-races, and follow the directions of AJC Officials and Security Guards.
- Mounting Yard access is only issued to approved working journalists and photographers.
- Mobile telephones may not be turned on or used in the Mounting Yard or in the scales area.
- Media granted access to the Mounting Yard must dress neatly. Open shoes are not allowed.

Dress Code

- Media must adhere to the dress codes for the Mounting Yard and Members' Enclosures, set out by AJC.
- Clothing will not be provided to meet these requirements.

Breach of Media Accreditation Rules

All accredited media and photographers must obey directions given to them by AJC Officials and Security staff. Failure to abide by these rules will result in instant revocation of accreditation.
